Meghalaya government has approved the 4th phase of Megha Health Insurance Scheme (MHIS IV). Under this scheme, people will now get an enhanced insurance coverage of Rs. 5 lakhs (previously Rs. 2.8 lakh). Moreover, this amount will now include all investigations and tests necessary for treatment. This fourth phase is in convergence with Central Government scheme of Pradhan Mantri Rashtriya Swasthya Suraksha Mission (PMRSSM).

Megha Health Insurance Scheme (MHIS IV) will provide Health Insurance to 8.8 lakh families in the state. In this fourth phase, now all the family members will get health insurance benefits unlike previous phase, where only upto 5 members of family were to be insured.

Megha Health Insurance Scheme (MHIS IV) in Meghalaya

The important features and highlights of MHIS 4th phase are as follows:-

Meghalaya Health Insurance Scheme (MHIS), originally launched in December 2012, is all set to enter the 4th phase.

This 4th phase will be launched in convergence with Ayushman Bharat Yojana – PMRSSM

MHIS is a Universal Health Insurance Scheme to provide health insurance to all persons that are resident of the state.

Insurance coverage under MHIS is increased to Rs. 5 lakh from previous Rs. 2.8 lakh. Now the insurance amount is Rs. 5 lakh per family per year for secondary and tertiary hospitalisation,

However, state govt. and central govt. employees are excluded from this scheme.

Meghalaya govt. has launched this scheme in the FY 2012 to provide financial assistance to all the citizens at the time of hospitalisation and reduce out-of-pocket expenses of residents.

Till date, more claims worth Rs. 70 crore has already been given under MHIS III with more than 1 lakh patients taking advantage of medical treatment.

It is important to note that, 100% hospitals in the state are now included in MHIS Scheme.

List of empaneled hospitals, claim status, package rates and more information about the Megha Health Insurance Scheme can be found on the official website at <http://mhis.nic.in> Meghalaya government has launched CM Housing Assistance Programme for affordable houses. Subsequently, the state govt. is going to provide financial assistance and material for roofs of houses. Accordingly, this housing scheme will benefit the poor and economically weaker sections of the society. Henceforth, the state govt. will implement this scheme in both rural and urban areas.

The state govt. has changed the name of previous Meghalaya Affordable Housing Scheme to CM Housing Assistance Scheme. Previously, state govt. provides CGI sheets to the selected beneficiaries. However due to some undue reasons, this scheme was stopped.

This new CM Housing Assistance will include 2 components. Subsequently, the state govt. will provide construction materials for building houses. In addition to this, Meghalaya govt. will also provide a financial assistance of Rs 75,000 to the beneficiaries.

(adsbygoogle=window.adsbygoogle||[]).push({});

CM Housing Assistance Programme

The important features and highlights of this scheme are as follows:-

This scheme is the new version of the previous Meghalaya Affordable Housing Scheme.

Meghalaya govt. will provide financial support of Rs. 75,000 to the beneficiaries for the construction purposes.

In addition to this, govt. will also provide the high quality roofing material.

Govt. is going to implement this scheme in the rural as well as the urban areas.

All the citizens can avail the benefits of this scheme to make a dwelling house for their family members.

Chief Minister launches this scheme to provide affordable housing to the people of Meghalaya.

This scheme follows the lines of "Housing for All" Scheme to provide every citizen its own house till the financial year 2022.

To successfully implement this scheme, the state govt. will constitute a selection committee. Accordingly, this committee will select the names and prepares the list of the beneficiaries.

(adsbygoogle=window.adsbygoogle||[]).push({});

Moreover, govt. will carry selection process at both the district and block level which further speeds up this implementation process. Citizens can take the maximum benefits of CM Housing Assistance Programme to realize their dream of own house in the state.
